NAT'S MESSAGE TO THE FANS

That was a start, but one swallow doesn't make a summer and we've got to continue today where we left off last Saturday. We welcome Doncaster, their players, officials and their supporters.

We had our eye on them when they played Derby last Sunday — in fact Asa Hartford and David Cross went over to watch the game and give us a report on how they had played.

The rest of the players were on duty too. They all turned up here at Burnden Park to make the Junior White's Christmas Party a treat for the young fans. I must say I have been delighted with the commitment the players have shown to the club since I took over.

One of the problems we've had to deal with its keeping tabs on goalkeepers to cover for Simon Farnworth following the news that his understudy Kevin Mailey has been laid up with a collarbone injury.

I had a couple of 'keepers watched last Saturday because we could face a situation where we need cover for Simon should he get injured. In the meantime we've got to look after him, make sure nothing happens to him in training and keep our fingers crossed that he remains injury-free.

FRONT COVER: Warren Joyce in action.

All week before Saturday's game against Chesterfield we had talked about needing one thing — a win. And that's what we got. When they updated the League table on Saturday night we had an extra three points and, whatever sort of game we'd seen, no one could take those points off us and that's all that mattered.

At times, I admit, the players were over-anxious. They were desperate to do well, desperate to score and desperate to win. But what pleased me most was that they all gave their lot.

Once or twice when the simple ball was required players tried to play more difficult, telling passes. When we needed to slow things down we were too hurried.

Asa Hartford showed the lads what was required when he took the sting out of the game and calmed things down towards the end.

I think that we scored a couple of goals pleased the supporters. I hadn't realised until I was told after the game that it was the first we had scored two goals in a game since Septembert 28.

At least we tried to get forward when we could. At home I think that's essential.

SEASONAL GREETINGS

The Chairman, Directors, Staff and Players of Bolton Wanderers F.C. wish all our supporters a Very Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year.

DONCASTER ROVERS

DONCASTER READY TO POUNCE

by Tony Pullein

Doncaster Rovers have settled down quite well in mid-table and are now in a position to pounce should any of the promotion-hopefuls start to slip. They received a major blow when manager Billy Bremner moved on to Leeds a few weeks ago but they haven't been too hasty in appointing a successor. At the beginning of this week no announcement had been made about a replacement.

Rovers have scored away victories at Wolves (2-1), Swansea (2-0), Cardiff (1-0), and Darlington (2-0) and they have taken single points from Newport (2-2), Notts County (1-1), Lincoln (3-3) and Chesterfield (0-0).

They were beaten at Rotherham (1-2), Blackpool (0-4) and Gillingham (0-4).

Their Cup ambitions came to an early end in both competitions. Though they drew 2-2 on aggregate with Notts County in the first round of the Milk Cup, they lost on away goals. Then they went down heavily at Wigan (1-4) at the first stage of the F.A. Cup.

Former Leeds and Scotland wing-half Billy Bremner had been in charge at Belle Vue since November 1978 and in 1981 and 1984 he led them successfully to promotion from the Fourth Division. He had then been setting his sights upon a return to Division Two. It is now almost 28 years since Doncaster last enjoyed Second Division status.

Twelve months after dropping out of the Second Division,

Rovers dropped into the newly-formed Fourth Division remaining there until 1966. But they survived for only one season as a Third Division club before sinking back into Division Four again.

When they jumped up again in 1969, they lasted for only two seasons and they then faced a ten-year spell in the basement. Mr Bremner led them back into Division Three in 1981 but they went down again two years later. This time they bounced back again at the first attempt.

The Rovers' club was founded in 1879 and initially gained election to the Second Division in 1901. But, after only two seasons, they were voted out again.

Re-elected again in 1904, they collected only eight points from 34 games — the lowest total ever recorded in League history — and they were once again given the big boot.

It wasn't until 1923 that Rovers returned to the League fold in the new Third Division (North). They won the division championship in 1935, but after two seasons of Second Division play, they dropped back again.

In 1947 they set up what was then a League record of 72 points — winning 18 of their 21 away games — to earn another crack at Second Division football. Sadly, they lasted for only one season and in 1950 they began what was to be their last spell of Second Division play. It lasted until 1958.

ANDY RHODES (Goalkeeper). Doncaster-born Andy turned professional with Barnsley and made his League debut for them two seasons ago. He held his place in their Second Division side for almost the whole season but then dropped out last term. He signed for Doncaster in October.

MICKY STEAD (Defender). Micky was signed from Southend United last month. He began his career with Tottenham, making his first few League appearances in 1975/76. The following season he joined Swansea on loan and he was transferred to Southend for £50,000 in 1978.

GLENN HUMPHRIES (Defender). Glenn graduated from Doncaster's youth team, won England youth honours and completed his apprenticeship at Belle Vue. He made his League debut in 1981 and has been a regular member of the side for the past three years.

DAVID CUSACK (Defender). David is a central defender of considerable experience. After making his League debut for Sheffield Wednesday in 1975, he quickly won a regular place which he held until moving on to Southend in 1978. He made more than 200 senior appearances for the Shrimpers and then moved on to Millwall in 1983. Doncaster signed him for £40,000 during the last close-season.

TONY BROWN (Defender). Tony developed with Leeds United, making his first League

appearance in 1982/83. He won a regular place the following season but last season dropped back into the reserves. Doncaster signed him in the summer.

DAVID RUSHBURY (Defender). David has played at left-back and centre-back during a career that stretches back to 1974 when he made his League debut for West Bromwich Albion. Sheffield Wednesday signed him for £60,000 in 1976 and for three years he was a member of their back four. Swansea signed him for a similar fee in 1979 but two years later he moved on to Carlisle for £40,000. He was transferred to Gillingham last season and joined Doncaster in the summer.

JOHN BUCKLEY (Midfield). John made his bow in Scottish League football with Partick Thistle in 1982/83 and was transferred to Doncaster in 1984.

JIM DOBBIN Jim was introduced to Celtic's League eleven in 1983/84 and he also played on loan to Motherwell that season. Doncaster signed him before the campaign ended and he became a fairly regular member of their side last season.

DAVID HARLE (Midfield). David is in his second spell with the club. He first appeared in their League eleven in 1980 and he completed more than 50 League games over the following two years. Exeter City signed him in 1982 but he returned to Belle Vue just over a year later.

BRIAN FLYNN (Midfield). Brian, who was signed from Cardiff City a few weeks ago, has played for Wales on 66 occasions. He grew up at Burnley when the club was still a major power. He made more than 100 League appearances for the Clarets and was then transferred to Leeds for £175,000. He returned to Burnley for a brief loan spell in 1981/82 and was fully transferred back to Turf Moor for £60,000 the following season. Cardiff signed him last season.

COLIN DOUGLAS (Forward). Colin was a reserve player with Celtic but soon settled down in League football after joining Doncaster in 1981/82. Last season he was top scorer with 17 goals and he leads the way again this term.

NEIL WOODS (Forward). Neil is a former Doncaster apprentice. He was blooded in their League eleven in 1982/83 but, until this season, had made only occasional appearances.

AIDAN BUTTERWORTH (Forward). Aidan worked his way up from the youth team at Leeds to take his place in their senior side in 1981/82. Two seasons later he broke into the side on a regular basis and finished top scorer with 13 goals. He joined Doncaster in the summer of 1984.

CLUB NEWS

The Wanderers entertain Doncaster Rovers today for the sixth time in the football league having won three of the previous games and losing only once.

Bolton have won both league games between the two sides here at Burnden the first one taking place at Second Division level, in October 1904. Rovers came to Burnden at the bottom of the league with only one victory in their last eight games whilst the Wanderers were in second place two points behind Liverpool with a game in hand. Doncaster had only gained football league status in 1901-02, finishing seventh in their first season, but failing to gain re-election in the next term with Bradford City taking their place. They were out for only one season and had featured at the expense of Stockport County but not even the signing of Wanderers winger Jimmy Hansen could halt their slide in the current campaign.

A crowd of 7,000 saw Bolton win 2-0 with both goals coming in the first half hour. Taylor netted the first goal after a low cross from Stokes and Yenson notched the second from a Taylor centre. The two points won were Bolton's 100th in Second Division football.

The Wanderers completed the double the following December with a resounding 4-0 victory which took them to the top of the league. Doncaster on the other hand were still struggling and had registered only one win in fourteen games.

The country's leading goalscorer Walter White grabbed the first goal although the crowd were not too happy as it had a suspicion of offside. On the stroke of half time White found the net again but the crowd were once more dissatisfied feeling that the referee had played too much overtime!

Albert Shepherd with a fine solo effort scored Bolton's third and as darkness fell it was Shepherd who set up White to complete his hat trick with the fourth goal of the afternoon. Bolton supporters were pleased that day, not only in the knowledge that they were top of the division and had the country's leading scorer, but had also won more games, scored more goals and had a better goal average than any other league club.

It wasn't until last season, 80 years later, that our paths crossed once again with Doncaster registering their only victory over Bolton to date, in September 1984 at Belle Vue. Former Bolton keeper Dennis Peacock did particularly well to keep the Wanderers from scoring for the first time on their travels last season but it was in the second half when Rovers found the net. Glyn Snodin sent a swerving free kick past Simon Farnworth for the opening goal and six minutes from time Snodin was again on hand to give the home side a 2-0 win. Sandwiched between the goals Simon Farnworth made a spectacular penalty save from Ian Snodin, his second save from the spot in a week.

The last league game between the sides here at Burnden was last February with Bolton running out 3-1 winners. Mark Came opened the scoring for the Wanderers three minutes from half time, with his first league goal, completing a set piece. Tony Caldwell scored the goal of the game in the 54th minute a curling 30 yard shot that left Dennis Peacock, playing his 300th league game, stranded. Rovers pulled a goal back when David Harle headed home a John Philliben cross but Bolton made sure of the points when Jeff Chandler converted a penalty awarded when George Oghani was barged over by Ian Snodin. The two teams for that meeting were: — Bolton: Farnworth, Borrows, Phillips, Joyce, Came, Deakin, Thompson, Chandler, Oghani, Caldwell, Bell. Sub Valentine.

Doncaster: Peacock, Russell, Lister, I. Snodin, Dobbin, Humphries, Buckley, Philliben, Douglas, Harle, G. Snodin Sub Butterworth.

Earlier this season the two sides drew 1-1 at Belle Vue. The game appeared to be heading towards a goalless draw with neither side creating many chances. Doncaster had slightly more possession but it was the Wanderers who grabbed the lead in the 68th minute. Tony Caldwell's centre found David Cross unmarked and he headed home his first goal for the club. Rovers didn't equalise until two minutes from time when Jimmy Phillips sliced a clearance to Colin Douglas who fired past the stranded Simon Farnworth.

Our League record against Doncaster reads

	PL	W	D	L	F	A
Home	2	2	0	0	5	1
Away	3	1	1	1	5	3
Total	5	3	1	1	10	4

4th December 1985. Bolton Wanderers Reserves 0 Doncaster Rovers Reserves 1

The Wanderers reserves failed to find the net for only the second time this season against what was virtually Doncaster's first team.

The Yorkshire side arrived without their boots, but after being 'fitted' wasted no time in taking the initiative. Wanderers keeper Simon Farnworth made a good diving save from Colin Douglas in the first minute but could do nothing about Neil Woods shot after five minutes that proved to be the only goal of the game.

PAUL ALLEN

Rovers keeper Dennis Peacock wasn't really tested until later in the first half, saving well from Paul Allen and from a mis-directed clearance by player manager Dave Cusack. Boltons best chance of equalising in the first half fell to Roger Walker who outpaced the Rovers defence from the half way line only to be brought down by Peacock

Down memory lane

15 years ago 19th December 1970. Portsmouth visited Burnden Park for a game which attracted Bolton's smallest attendance of the season, 5,528. The Wanderers made four changes from the previous Saturday. Hunt and Hurley were out through injury, Wharton was relegated to substitute and Taylor having been transferred to Birmingham made way for Garry Jones, Rimmer, Philips and Byrom.

Ray Pointer gave Pompey the lead in the 37th minute but Wanderers centre forward John Manning equalised in first half injury time with a 25 yard drive, the game finally ending 1-1.

23rd December 1970. The Wanderers youth team went out of the FA Youth Cup with a 2-0 defeat at Manchester United and on the same day a £15,000 fee was agreed with Sheffield Wednesday for the transfer of John Byrom. The striker was given time to think over the move.

26th December 1970. Bolton went down 1-0 to Carlisle United at Brunton Park with the winning goal coming in the 26th minute from former Wanderer Bob Hatton.

10 years ago 20th December 1975. Bolton defeated promotion challengers Bristol City by 1-0 at Burnden Park. The Wanderers were without Peter Thompson due to injury and his place was taken by Brian Smith. The winner didn't come until the 79th minute, when a back pass from City centre half Gary Collier, fell inches short of keeper Ray Cashley and Neil Whatmore nipped in to nudge the ball from his grasp and stab it over the line.

26th December 1975. The Wanderers went down to their first away defeat since the previous August as Oldham's 2-1 win at Boundary Park put them back into the second division promotion battle.

It was a keenly fought contest that kept Oldham's best crowd of the season, 24,537, on their toes as play switched from end to end. The first half was goalless but six minutes into the second period Bolton took the lead when Latics keeper John Platt dropped a Garry Jones centre and Neil Whatmore was on hand to shoot home.

Oldham's transfer listed winger Alan Groves proved to be their match winner he tormented the Wanderers defence to set up goals from David Shaw in the 59th and 68th minutes.

Four minutes from time Latics keeper John Platt, later to play for the Wanderers, made up for his earlier mistake when he made a gutsy save at the feet of Roy Greaves.

5 years ago 1980. Queens Park Rangers took the points with a 2-1 win at Burnden in a Friday evening fixture. The Londoners winner 13 minutes from time was a controversial effort, Mike Flanagan chipping into an empty net from forty yards whilst keeper, Terry Poole appeared to be held by Simon Stainrod.

Earlier Stainrod had given Rangers the lead but Alan Gowling equalised when keeper Chris Woods allowed his near post flick to slip through his hands.

26th December 1980. A makeshift Bolton side suffering from injuries and flu went to Wrexham and took the points with a 1-0 victory. Yugoslav Dusan Nikolic returned to the side for the first time since October and stamped his authority on the midfield whilst emergency centre half Alan Gowling and Gerry McElhinney thwarted Wrexham's second half onslaught.

The Wanderers winning goal came in first half injury time when Dave Hoggan chipped the ball through to Neil Whatmore who beat Dai Davies from close range.

In the dying seconds of the game Wanderers keeper Terry Poole fell awkwardly whilst making a vital save and dislocated his shoulder to add his name to the injury list.

on the edge of the area, amazingly the referee waved play on.

Despite plenty of Bolton pressure in the second half the nearest they came to equalising was when Wayne Entwistle had an overhead kick cleared off the line by substitute Rogers.

Team: Farnworth, Fitzpatrick, Oghani, Thompson, Winstanley, Sutton, Walker, Allen, Entwistle, Darby, Roberts, Sub Howard for Roberts.

Junior Whites News

Today's mascot is Craig Allardyce who lives in Bromley Cross. Craig is 10 years old and attends St Maxentius School and is captain of the school team, for whom he plays centre forward. Craig is the son of Wanderers favourite Sam Allardyce and won his prize in a draw at the last Junior Whites meeting.

Home Test

Fourteen of the 86 teams that have visited Bolton for a football league game have still to topple the Wanderers on their own soil.

Incredibly that record will have been tested twice within the space of a week. Firstly last Saturday Chesterfield visited Burnden and went away with their seventh defeat in seven visits and today Doncaster visit with the knowledge that they too have yet to taste victory in Bolton.

Of the fourteen 'lucky' clubs only two are currently in a higher league than the Wanderers — Crystal Palace who have failed to win in ten attempts at Burnden and Wimbledon whose only visit ended in defeat on the opening day of the 1983/84 season.

BURNDEN LIFELINE NEWS

— BY ALF DAVIES

With Christmas approaching one of our main tasks in the Commercial Department is to set our minds to handling Lifeline matters — a successful end to one year and the launch of a package of benefits for a new one.

Thinking back to Christmas 1982 when we were asked to launch Lifeline as a saviour for the club nobody could have envisaged the scheme becoming the success it is today. Now, three years on it is a lifesaver for sporting clubs throughout the country.

We have helped 22 clubs successfully launch their own Lifeline scheme and 15 more are on stand-by ready to launch theirs in the next few weeks. But while Nat Lofthouse and myself have been busy helping other clubs we must never lose track of the important thing that we must look after things here at Burnden Park.

No one has had the same level of success as ourselves. Not one of those other 22 clubs can match our numbers — an incredible 2,200 members. That is a tribute to you as members and the club is more than grateful for your continued membership.

But our message to you now is to make sure that you renew your membership and, at the same time, bring along a friend to enjoy the benefits too.

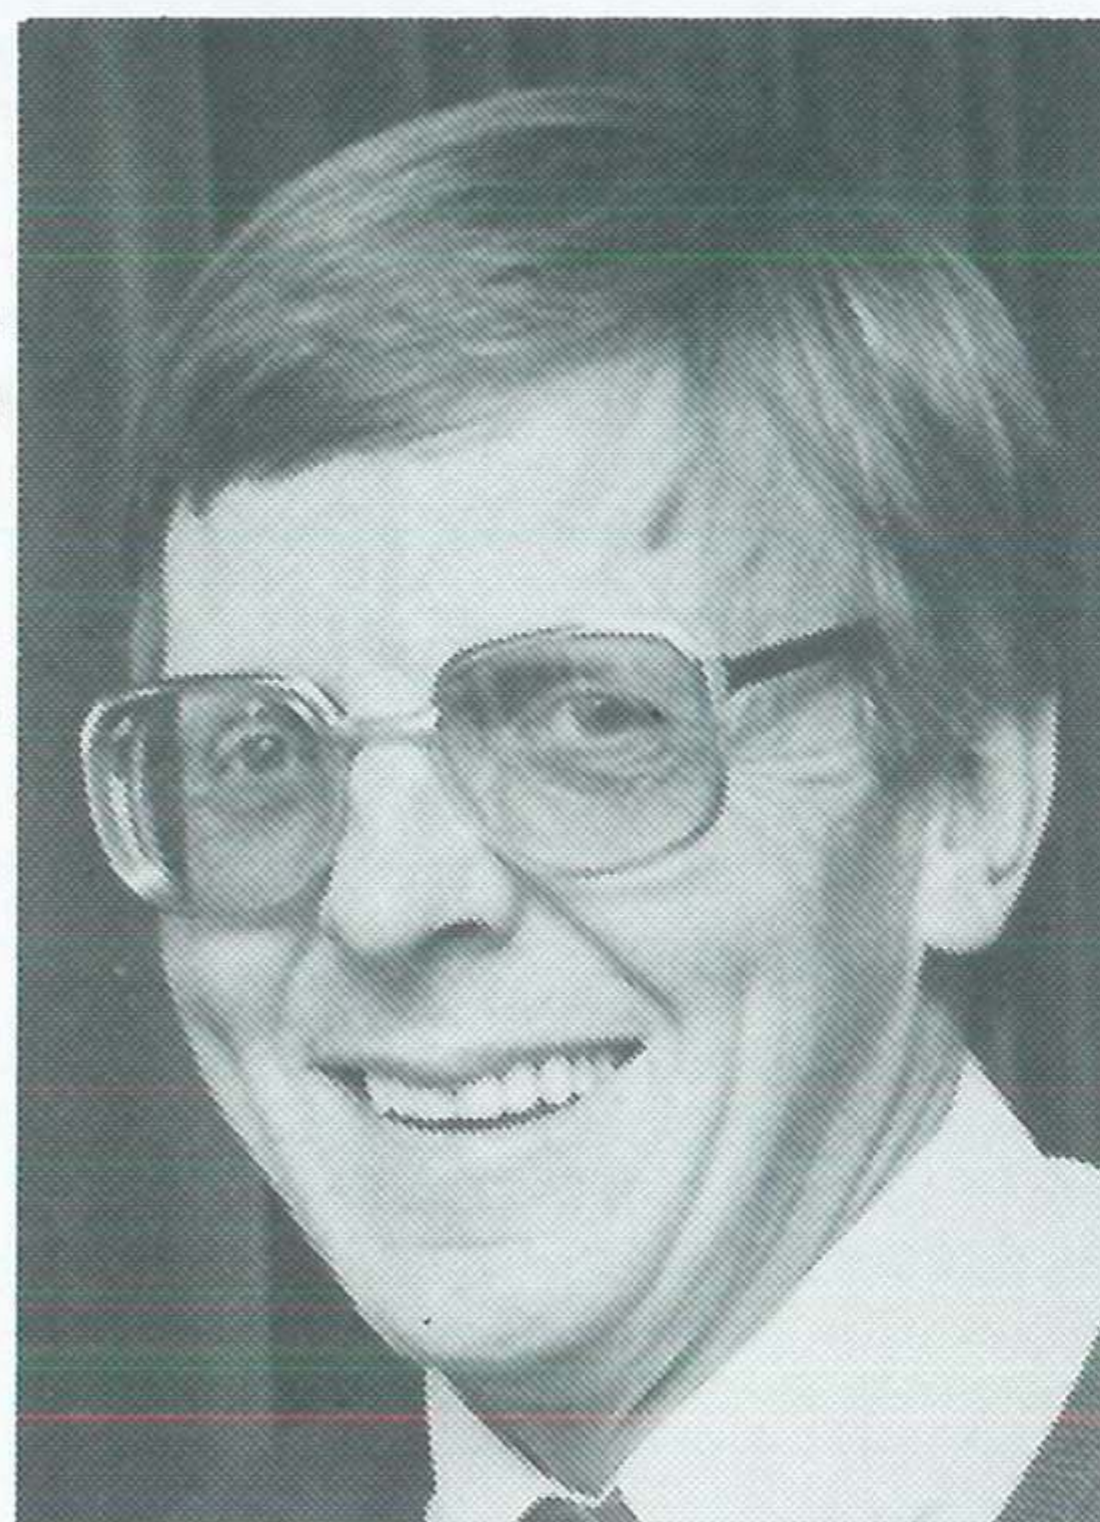

Make no mistake, whatever success we have with the Co-op development, we still need Lifeline. It is still crucial to the future of Bolton Wanderers.

On Monday at the Pembroke Halls we will be launching a fourth great year of Lifeline with even bigger and better rewards for our members.

Tickets for the evening are free to members and if you wish you can bring a friend along. We'll have an all-star cabaret on show but the biggest excitement of all will be when we unveil our star prizes for the coming year.

Nat Lofthouse and the players will be there to meet you. If you haven't picked up your tickets for the Pembroke, get over to the Commercial Department after the game or on Monday and make sure you are there to enjoy the launch.

If you can't make it, the important thing is that you renew your Lifeline Membership for 1986.

TRIBUTE TO BOLTON FANS

103 Denbydale Way, Royton, Oldham.

Dear Sir,

My wife who is a cabaret entertainer, Marilyn Stevie, was booked to appear at the Wheatsheaf Hotel, Newhey, Rochdale on Saturday 9th November.

Just prior to appearing on stage a crowd of some 8 young lads came in and sat down next to the stage. During Marilyn's performance, they joined in with her humour, applauded loudly and although they had obviously been drinking, most of the day, were in the main very well behaved.

At the end of the show they gave Marilyn a badge, and told her they were Bolton Wanderers supporters and they had been to Notts County that afternoon to watch Bolton play.

Unfortunately they had to leave while Marilyn was doing an encore and she did not have a chance to thank them personally for their good humour, good behaviour so lacking in a lot of youth today.

At a time when football supporters are receiving a lot of bad publicity, Bolton Wanderers can certainly feel proud of these lads. Could you therefore thank them on our behalf.

Yours faithfully, Stephen and Marilyn Bithell.
